

PURLEY WEEK

Sunday 22 March 2020

Welcome to Purley Baptist Church. During the Coronavirus pandemic our hope and prayer for this time is that you are healthy, and remain connected to others and to our Heavenly Father.

Today at PBC

The following will be available by 10.30am at www.purleybaptistchurch/media.

We hope you will be able to tune in, if possible on Sunday morning - we can then be united at this time even if we can't be present together.

Sunday Sermon

Threats & Opportunities

James Collins | Psalm 46

Worship

Led by the members of PBC band

Talk for Children & Families

Job and His Friends

Wendy Colpus | Job

Talk for Youth

Mark Humm will be producing this regularly

Coming soon!

DON'T MISS the daily devotions posted online Monday- Saturday from 31 March.

Please stay in touch!

Church staff are working from home but can be contacted by phone and email as usual. Email office@purleybaptist.org.uk or call 020 8668 0422 (answerphone checked regularly).

Online Updates

As of 17 March, all church activities that involve people in physical proximity have stopped until further notice. This includes events previously advertised in the Purley Week.

Updates on how church is functioning at this time are being sent to members and posted at www.purleybaptist.org/news. Be sure to read the letter sent out on 20/3/2020 which details:

1. Life Groups
2. Individual Pastoral Care
3. Church Online
4. Daily Devotions
5. Prayer
6. Outreach

Do tune in at www.purleybaptistchurch/media for video sound bites from the pastors.

Praying for Each Other

Our missionaries, church members, plus everything in the Purley Week are prayed for weekly on Fridays. Please join us this week in praying for church members: Colin Hardcastle, Kevin & Donna Hardcastle Derek & Harris, Mary Harper

Prayer Chain

Call us to have your concern covered in prayer.
Pam Davies, Jim Beacom

Thy Kingdom Come Prayer

Wednesday 25 March

Focus on prayer and fasting, details to follow.